Colombia Cauca Juan Tama Excelso

Washed Green Coffee Beans | Genuine Origin

Juan Tama is a pioneering organization of indigenous communities in the municipality of Inza in the Cauca department. Founded in 2008, the association encompasses 600 families with an estimated production of 10000 - 13000 bags of Excelso coffee. The association is dedicated to increasing organic and biodiverse food production and food autonomy with the goal of helping its member families enjoy prosperity.

Juan Tama provides farm assistance to its members in the form micro-loans and agronomic assistance such as crop management, in-farm processing and organic farm management.

Origin

Colombia

Region

Inzá, Cauca department

Producer

Juan Tama Indigenous Councils Association

Processing

Washed

Harvest Schedule

September - December

Variety

Caturra, Colombia, Castillo

Altitude (MASL)

1500-2000

Genuine Origin