Coffee Background

Juan Tama is a pioneering organization of indigenous communities in the municipality of Inza in the Cauca department. Founded in 2008, the association encompasses 600 family farms with an estimated production of between 10000 - 13000 bags of Excelso green coffee beans. The association is dedicated to increasing organic and biodiverse food production and food autonomy with the goal of helping its member families enjoy prosperity

Juan Tama provides farm assistance to its members in the form of micro-loans and agronomic assistance such as crop management, in-farm processing, and organic farm management.
