Coffee Background

Indian Kaapi Royale Robusta coffee is an international favorite for espresso blends – for good reasons. The Kaapi Royale grade of specialty Robusta is one of the highest quality Robusta coffees in the world and is celebrated for its uniformity, clean cup profile, and screen size 17 consistency.

In the 1992/1993 crop year, India introduced the Kaapi Royale grade to demonstrate the country's commitment to specialty coffee production. Meticulous growing practices and sorting methods leave the coffee free from the bitterness and defects typically associated with Robusta coffee. Smallholders throughout Karnataka make high-quality AA lots like this possible and showcase the potential of luxury Robusta coffee from India.

The baker's chocolate flavor profile of this coffee is augmented by hints of vanilla and toast notes, creating a deliciously sweet and aromatic cup with low levels of bitterness.

India is a pioneer for washed Robusta coffee. Coffea canephora originated in Central and West Africa and makes up around 40% of the world's coffee production volume today. Vietnam is the world's leading producer of Robusta with nearly 30 million bags a year.
